Workingmen Can Secure Their Books At The Factory Where They Work—Fill In And Sign The Red Card In Book No. 3.

"Everything possible, is being done to facilitate the issuing of the new Ration Book No. 4, so that there will be no congestion at the issuing places and little or no inconvenience caused to the public," stated Armand Hummel, Secretary of the Local Rationing Board, when questioned by The Independent regarding the general setup for the issuing of the new books.

"In order to relieve congestion in Grimsby, and cause as little confusion as possible," said Mr. Hummel, "books have been issued to all the manufacturing plants and at one or two other places where large groups are employed or reside, and the people concerned can secure their books there and thus avoid the necessity of visiting the West Public school on April first, to secure their book."

This means that people living in the Mansion Apartments, can secure their book from Hugh K. Whyte. Workmen in any of the manufacturing plants can secure their book or group of family books from the office of the firm where they are employed.

Norman Lawson Well Known Here

Former Accountant In Canadian Bank Of Commerce For Some Years—Passed Away On Friday.

Three times wounded with the First Territorial Regiment in France, during the last war, and later awarded the Mons Star, Norman Lawson, 63, Mountain View apartment, Hamilton, was found dead on a Mountain pathway above Ravenscliffe avenue last Friday afternoon. Police were asked to locate Mr. Lawson, who had not been well, when he failed to return to his home Thursday evening.

Deceased was well and favorably known in Grimsby having been accountant in the Canadian Bank of Commerce for some years previous to his transfer to Hamilton. His wife was a daughter of the late Wm. Gibson who farmed the late Wm. Kennedy at the corner of Nelles Road and No. 3 Highway.

He enlisted with a horse artillery company in London, Eng., the very day England declared war in 1914. Three times wounded, he returned to his unit on each occasion and earned the Mons Star for his gallantry. He was a member of the Church of England.

Surviving are his wife, his mother, Mrs. Florence Lawson, London, Eng., and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Litton, also of London, Eng.

Dr. Ben. Rogers Leaving Grimsby

Making his own announcement at the Lions Club dinner on Tuesday evening, Dr. Ben T. Rogers stated that he and his family were leaving Grimsby on April first. He came to Grimsby five and one-half years ago as assistant to Col. (Dr.) Gordon Sinclair and since September 1939, when Col. Sinclair enlisted, has carried on the practice alone. Sells Shamrocks For Cigarettes

Mr. Dirksen Donates The Plants—"Cammy" Mill-yard Raffles Them—Cigarette Fund Gets $17.75.

To say the least, "Cammy" Mill-yard is one versatile guy, with a noodle full of magic tricks, especially when it comes to extracting money out of other for the Cigarette Fund.

Last Friday being the natal day of the Patron Saint, Patrick, Mr. Dirksen of the Robinson street greenhouses donated eight pots of shamrock to be sold for the benefit of the Cigarette Fund. "Cammy" sold some of the shamrocks in sprig form and then on Friday night hid himself away in Father O'Donnell's St. Patrick's dance.

With the consent and blessing of the Good Father, "Cammy" raffled off the potted shamrock and believe it or not he made that bunch of English, Scotch, Dutch and Jewish Irish men dig deep.

Between the sale of "riffs" and the raffles the neat sum of $17.75 was collected for the boys smokes. Thanks Mr. Dirksen. Good work "Cammy".

MILL SUBSIDY REDUCES RATE

Grimsby Taxpayers Will Really Only Pay 28 Mills On Dollar This Year, Now Drew Govt. Has Granted One Mill For School Purposes.

When town council struck the 1944 tax rate in February, it was set at 30 mills, one mill subsidy coming from the Ontario government, which made the rate that the taxpayer paid, 29 mills—13 mills for general purposes and 16 mills for educational purposes.

Now that the Drew government has granted the municipalities a one mill subsidy for school purposes, Grimsby's tax rate for 1944, that the citizens will assume, is really 28 mills.

Mayor Edric S. Johnson does not know at the present time how this one mill will be handled. He stated on Tuesday night that "there are quite a few people who prepay their year's taxes in January and February. There are a large number of others who when paying the first installment when it comes due on April first, pay their whole year's taxes."

"We are now contacting the government," stated the Mayor "to see if we can have permission to deduct this one mill when the taxpayer pays his or her taxes on April first." If this permission cannot be given, the municipality will, of course, have to refund the one mill after the bill passes through Provincial Government. In either case the property owner will eventually get the one mill.

Gainsboro Loses A Fine Official

Wm. T. Fralick Ex-Warden of Lincoln Passes—Served People For Many Years.

Born in Wainfleet, he has lived most of his life at Wellandport. He was superintendent of provincial highways in that area at the time of his death. He had been in poor health for some time.

Deceased is survived by his widow and twin children, Joan and John. He was a member of the United Church and the Masonic Order.

Up to the end of February 41 foxes were shot in Lincoln county since the first of the year.

Citizenship Award To Mrs. B. K. Moore

GRIMSBY RESIDENT 34 YEARS; 27 YEARS THEATRE MANAGER

The selection of Mrs. Bessie K. Moore, as the fourth of our residents to receive The Good Citizenship Award, the Lions Club will undoubtedly be assured of the solid support of our citizens in their choice. The previous three awards were presented to Mrs. William H. Groce, John H. Forman and Rev. J. Allan Ballard.

This year's recipient was born Bessie Kinzie, in the hamlet of Georgetown, Pa., on the banks of the Monongahela River, and had her first taste of the show business when a little lass, as she has many fond and vivid recollections of the Show Boats that used to visit her countryside home and present all the latest dramatic, musical and comedy productions of the day. Show Boats were a very prominent feature of the entertainment and social life in all the villages and towns, situated on the banks of the great rivers of the United States, in those days.

When a girl in her teens she went to Cleveland to reside and there met A. W. Moore, a Canadian by birth and a Captain on the Previous Recipients Of Award Present—Congratulations Extended By Other Organizations—Membership Buttons Presented To New Members.

Grimsby Lions Club, in dinner session at The Village Inn on Tuesday evening paid high tribute to one of Grimsby's outstanding citizens, in the person of Mrs. Bessie Kinzie Moore, Manageress of Moore's Theatre.

It was the annual gathering of the Lions for the awarding of the Good Citizenship Medal, an award that is made every year, to the citizen, who in the past year or years has performed a duty or many duties for the general benefit of the town, township and the residents.

Nominations for this award are made to the Club Secretary by residents and organizations at large and the unknown judges of three, one Lion and two non-Lions, make their selection from those nominations.

This year the selection of the judges proved a very popular one with Lion members and as Lion Jimmie Baker expressed it "I feel sure that this award will meet with the general approval of all our citizens."

Kindergarten Kids Buy War Stamps

Little Tots Purchase $138 Worth In Past Seven Months—Top Honors Go To Grade Four.

Grimsby Public school pupils ever since War Stamps were first put on sale have been consistent buyers of them.

Principal Ken. Griffith and his staff are very proud of the efforts that their pupils have made in this direction, and in a statement handed to The Independent, one surprising fact stands out. The little tots in the Kindergarten are the second largest purchasers of stamps for the past seven months. It hardly seems possible that these little tots would know what war and War Stamps were all about but they do in this case to the tune of $138.25.

The statement of purchases from Sept. 15 to March 20th, is as follows:

	Stamps	Money
E. Primary	553	$138.25
Grade 1	520	$130.00
Grade 2	280	$70.00
Grade 3	527	$131.98
Grade 4	600	$150.19
Grade 5	382	$95.50
Grade 6	341	$85.25
Grade 7	459	$114.91
Grade 8	241	$60.25
Total	4,003	$978.33

FACTS & FANCIES

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

THAT WOLF STORY

Few incidents have aroused more discussion throughout the district than the recent story of the shooting of a wolf near Smithville. The wolf turned out to be an outlaw wild dog, but the party of hunters responsible for the kill were not at all sure and made no real claims that the victim was a wolf. Responsible authority at Toronto settled the question and no payment for bounty was forthcoming.

At that, we believe that a bounty should be paid. And for this reason. Last year the Township of Calstor paid out $1,588 in compensation to farmers who had sheep run down and killed by vagrant dogs. It is doubtful if wolves in the whole of Algoma inflicted loss as great as that in any one year.

A dog of wolf stature which goes "native" is a dangerous beast and particularly a menace to every domestic animal and fowl.

HASN'T COLLECTED CHICKEN FEED

Anges McPhail's friends may be interested in excerpts from a speech she made last week in Orono town hall, as reported in the Bownanville Statesman:

"Miss Macphail frankly admitted she had only $394 in the bank, and she would feel more secure when the C.C.F. took over banks than leaving it with the Bank of Nova Scotia where it now was. When the C.C.F. government makes plans it cannot effect them without controlling finance. The C.C.F. aren't going to pull any punches. The insurance companies dominate the government today. I want it the other way around. And she advocated a National Investment Commission that ought to pay possibly three per cent. with security equal to that of Victory Bonds.

In the darkness of six a.m. the following morning, Miss Macphail caught the C.P.R. for Toronto. A fellow traveller was George James, editor of the Statesman. He was not present at the Orono meeting. George bet her she would run and run for the Federal House in the coming election. She didn't deny it, but admitted she always like it at Ottawa. That was understandable. As a member at Ottawa she had drawn in sessional indemnities and perquisites something like $80,000."

MUST WAIT FOR MIRACLES

Far-sighted manufacturers are wise in warning the public not to expect wonder goods the day after victory. New and marvellous things will be available. Private enterprise will produce them. But they won't be ready overnight.

Telling the public the facts about products that will be available immediately after the war is vital, both to the individual business and to the whole country.

A buyer's strike, in which the public sat back waiting for the new marvel, would stall an important segment of Canadian business and weaken or wreck its capacity to give employment.

At the same time, it would delay or prevent the development work which would make the new models possible.

To turn out completely new goods after this war would involve a staggering program of conversion for every factory in the country. New blueprints, new dies, new patterns and new machinery would have to be devised and manufactured. In radios, automobiles and refrigerators this might involve from six months to two years of retooling and refitting during which only a skeleton force of workers would be retained. Not until the new machinery had been devised, built and installed, could the regular worker hope to find a steady job and the consumer his new goods.

Goods made from the last available patterns will be ready soon after the war and they will be mighty wonderful to people who have had to do without them for the war years.

THE SCIENCE OF MARRIAGE

There have always been some young people who have gotten married with insufficient consideration. Wartime conditions are likely to increase the tendency to hasty marriages. Young lovers fearing long separation, may decide that they want even a brief period of married life, if they are to be parted for many months.

When the heart of loving young people is full of romantic hopes, they may not feel that marriage is to be looked at as a scientific proposition. It may be said to be a matter of sentiment. Yet as science means thorough knowledge, it should have principles that apply to marriages, which comes from being the greatest experience of life.

If we consider that there is a science of marriage, its most essential element is the ability of people to get along comfortably and happily together in this intimate relation. There is one more highly important branch of this science, and that consists in the ability of people to pick the right mates when they get married. They may have good ideas as to how they will carry on under married life, but if they pick a mate whose ideas are very different from theirs, the union may go to smash.

It has sometimes been claimed that a married couple exert the most power in life if they are somewhat different in traits and characteristics, so that the strong points of one of them make up for any lack of deficiencies in his or her mate. If these differences consist of opposite desires and inclinations, there seems considerable danger that disputes will arise, which may result in separation.

A recent study by professors from Chicago and Stanford universities indicated that boys and girls are most likely to get married if they have similar traits. If they do not like the same things to a large extent, the chances for harmony do not seem so good. Young people contemplating marriage would better consider if they come near liking the same things.

SPEAKING OF HATS

The British House of Commons, adept as it may be at grasping the bull by the horns, has come to grips with no pensive Ferdinand when it tackles the question of women's hats.

Hugh Dalton, Chairman of the Board of Trade, when challenged to explain the price and shape of the latest Spring millinery models, promptly dove for the nearest fox-hole.

A man who could undoubtedly stand his ground through no end of parliamentary fireworks over partition for Ireland or the independence of India, Mr. Dalton knows when to take cover.

Who, indeed, that wished to enjoy the benefits of his social security would be so brash as to attempt to place an arbitrary value upon a woman's hat. It can't be done. A hat may have any one of a number of values—all of them intangible.

For instance, who can deny the value of hats as a morale builder? On the other hand, there are hats which are noted chiefly for their nuisance value—particularly in the movies. Then there are hats that have, shall we say, a certain "face" value.

After all, a woman doesn't buy a hat just because it's a hat. It's what it does for her that counts. For the hat that catches the eye may be the one that also "catches the guy" as every millinery-conscious female knows.

Now, Mr. Dalton, would you mind moving over?

HOW JAPS SIMPLIFY BANKING

Owing to the acute manpower shortage in that country, Japan has already moved to simplify bookkeeping in all Japanese banks. The first step, already taken, was to stop paying or crediting interest on any deposit. The next move is to stop all withdrawals of deposits.

This, it is believed, will save more time than refusing deposits, because it is easy to take in money, particularly when it is not necessary to credit it. Then when no interest has to be paid and no money is allowed to be withdrawn, no bookkeeping of any kind will be necessary. Simple, isn't it?

'WAY BACK WHEN

REAL SWAPPING

Here is a story by John Gould, in The Christian Science Monitor, is so typical of the olden time place in 1943, it swapping and trading this column.

A great big fellow backed a truck up against my barn the other day and went up on the haymow with a pitchfork. He opened the big doors and began pitching out hay at a great rate. I never saw the fellow before, and naturally wondered about his presence.

I must confess that hardly anything goes on around here but I consider it carefully as Dispatch material, and this certainly seemed like a good situation to approach thoughtfully and make the most of it. I climbed up in the mow, and the big fellow tossed me a nod most pleasantly, never missing a stroke with the fork.

"Hello," I said.
"Hello," he said.
"You probably know what you're doing," I said.
"But I don't. Should I?"

"I've come for Joe's hay," he called. "Any objections?"

I couldn't be sure if his manner was blustering, but I noticed he was even bigger than I thought, so I steered a safe course. "None whatever, provided it's Joe's hay—but I just don't happen to think it is. You haven't made a mistake, have you?"

"Aren't you Ray Beech?"
"No."
"Ain't this the Beech place?"
"No."

He stopped pitching hay and leaned on the fork. "Who are you?" I told him. "This your barn?" I said it was. Without a word he jumped out in the truck, pitched the hay back in the barn, closed the doors and drove off. I wandered around trying to find something to do for the next hour or so, but I couldn't see for the life of me how I was going to make a Dispatch out of that—and yet it seemed to have elements worth developing.

Then he came back. He backed the truck in again, opened the doors, and began pitching the hay out. I climbed back up in the mow, and he grinned at me happily. "It's all right," he called, "Charlie Graham says it's all right."

"Who is Charlie Graham?"
"Don't you know Charlie?"

"No."

"Well, he's a blacksmith; he says it's all right."

I told him I guessed he'd better wait a minute—it wasn't altogether all right, and this was still my barn and my hay.

Then I learned that this was Charlie's hay—or rather it was until Joe Parker bought it. Well, Joe bought five tons of it, and paid $5 down and was to pay $4 a ton when he got it, and my present visitor was hauling it for Joe. Later he was to get the other five tons, for Charlie, next week sometime. At first he thought this was the Beech place, because Ray Beech owned the hay first, and somebody said it was in Ray's barn, and he thought this was where Ray lived. But Charlie set him straight—and this was it, all right enough.

About that time I had a trickle of enlightenment, and I said let's go in and call Ray up and find out what the story is. Then we cleared everything up, and it was fairly simple. Last April I sold four tons of hay to Frank Barstow, and he was to pay as he took it at $12 a ton. But Frank got drafted, never took any, and is in England. His wife needed some money, and she didn't know any different, so she sold the four tons to someone, and someone sold it to someone else, and eventually it was the property of a man at Litchfield Four Corners. Someone sued him, and took all he had, and a lawyer named Judd kept the hay for his fee. The lawyer gave it to his brother-in-law, and the brother-in-law swapped it with Ray Beech for six cords of wood. By this time the original quantity had increased to ten tons, and the price had fluctuated accordingly. Since no one thought to confer with me, I had decided Frank wouldn't need hay in England, and I sold it to a man in Topsham who came and got it the same day—cash in hand.

The big fellow wagged his head thoughtfully at the various transactions came to light, and finally said, "I guess it ain't all right, then." I said, "No, I guess it ain't" and he pitched the hay back in again, closed the doors and drove away.

Drinking Coco Cola is like a guy kissing his own wife—there's no kick to it.

The St. Thomas Times-Journal regards the prospect of a general use of the walkie-talkie phone such as the soldiers use, when the war is over, as a horror of peace. Imagine hubby, out for relaxation, having to carry one of these portables and always accessible to home distress, and other calls!

This is one in a series of advertisements explaining problems of electric supply to farm and hamlet consumers served direct by The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

New Hydro Rural Rates Reduce Your Bills

Note the saving you will obtain under the new rate of 4c, 1 6/10c, and 3/4c in the following examples showing comparative quarterly bills for several commonly used quantities of energy:

Where Old Rate Was 4c, 2c, 3/4c

STANDARD FARM SERVICE			HAMLET 2-WIRE SERVICE
3 Months' Kilowatt Hours	YOUR BILL AT Old Rate	New Rate	3 Months' Kilowatt Hours	YOUR BILL AT Old Rate	New Rate
150	8.60	6.56	100	6.93	5.52
300	11.52	8.86	200	8.87	7.51
600	17.35	13.53	300	10.82	9.10

These examples illustrate the savings you will secure in your Hydro bill in Rural districts where the old rate was as shown above. The amounts shown are for quarterly not bills, including Dominion Government War Tax. The reduction in your bill in a district having a higher old rate (such as 6c, 2c, 3/4c or 5c, 2c, 3/4c) will be proportionately greater than the examples shown above.

Please note that the service charge for farms is discontinued, but the minimum bill for such consumer is $0.56 per quarter, for which amount up to 168 kw.-hrs. can be used. In a district having a former rate of 4c and 2c, this same amount would have cost the consumer $8.29.

Hamlet consumers have the service charge cut in half, but the minimum bill is $4.87 per quarter, for which they can use an amount of 88 kw.-hrs. In a district having a former rate of 4c and 2c, this amount would have cost the consumer $5.46.

These explanations are given to help you understand the new rate. In our next advertisement, we will discuss for your benefit, the UNIFORM RATE. In the meantime, if you need further information, please ask your Rural District Superintendent.

Buying Fever Can Sabotage Victory

Ever see a centre table in the aisle of a store absolutely surrounded with women grabbing for something on it? Last week this happened to us... going into a store we saw the all-too-familiar sight of half a hundred women battling for some goods on a table. Being curious, we edged in to see what we were missing... and the fever struck us too.

Getting in close enough to make a dive we began to watch our chance and, like a wary hunter, when a little opening came, we grabbed blindly—and got a poor grade dish towel, half linen, half cotton.

We got something else besides—a dig in the ribs that left a sore spot for days after... a run in a precious stocking, that cost 25c to have mended... a piece of skin clipped off a knuckle... and the worst of it was, we didn't need the dish towel... it was simply a case of buying fever that hit us.

Buying Fever is as contagious as measles... let a neighbour woman start telling you that "So-and-so's are selling their pre-war rugs off at a bargain, my dear—those deep crimson ones, and you'd better get one for there's no telling when we'll be able to get them again—the war might last for years... and you might never get another chance."

And something happens to you... you get buying fever and that night you begin to work on your husband and by the time you've talked yourself hoarse, he gives in—and next morning, when the bank opens, you're right on the doorstep... to sell your Bond, take back the money you loaned your country.

The rug looks beautiful on the living room floor, its deep colours catching the firelight... cosy and warm and kind of homelike... besides, you've wanted a deep red rug for years. And then you begin to wonder. The boys in Italy aren't walking on handsome rugs; they're slugging through mud up to their knees, climbing stony hillsides, tripping over underbrush and trailing vines their loads weighing them down like a ton of bricks and their shoulders sore where the straps press. All they'd ask to ever walk on would be a decent road that wasn't being shelled day and night, a good road with a hard surface.

If you're thinking of selling your Bond for a new rug or new paper for the living room—don't—you won't care what the living room looks like if Bill...

That's the only way to bring them back alive, putting your money to work to buy shells, bombs, explosives, planes, tanks, block busters; putting your money into fighting equipment to help them to beat back the foe.

Remember, too, when Bill comes marching home, he'll be looking about to see what kind of a job you've been doing on the home front. What kind of a job have you been doing?

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN

Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! March having come in "like a lion," its reasonable to hope that the first days of Spring may be fair with a real tinge of Spring warmth, which will give us all uplift in thought and inspiration to try new ways in our household duties.

From the heavier meals of Winter days, when more body warmth from food was necessary, change now to lighter dishes particularly in desserts. Have you thought, for instance, of new puff pastry with creamy fillings? It's rather tricky to make, but with detailed instructions you may try them with confidence. Having once mastered the successful making of your puff pastry, there are numerous dainty and delicious desserts to try. For example: petty cakes for hot creamed mixtures or cold salad concoctions; Napoleons and French pastries when fruit season commences.

Detailed Directions

1. Sift a quantity of bread flour once. Measure 1 1/2 cups into a bowl—do this by spooning the flour lightly into a measuring cup, to prevent packing. Add 1 tsp. salt.

2. We measure the fat by filling the measuring cup with 1/2 cup of ice cold water and dropping chunks of very cold fat until, with all fat pressed under the surface, the water level reaches the "cupful" mark. We drain the fat well. To obtain 1/2 cup butter we use the cup filled two-thirds with water. 3. The shortening and butter (2/3 cup plus 1/2 cup) are then chopped into the sifted flour and salt. A heavy dough blender or two sharp knives may be used to cut the fat into the size of large peas. A quick, sharp, keen cutting action is required—never twist the blender as that has a tendency to "cream" the fat.

4. Next, we believe in dribbling ice cold water. Use a fork to toss the flour over and over as the water is sprinkled here and there. This keeps complete control of the addition of the water so that just enough will be used to make a dough which, when lightly mixed, holds together nicely and comes cleanly from the sides of the bowl—our usual rule.

5. The next step is to wrap the dough in wax paper and chill it for half an hour before rolling it.

6. We use a lightly floured board to roll it out, with a rolling pin covered with a ribbed cotton pullover, which holds a minimum amount of flour evenly. Roll it out to a thickness of one-third inch. Then, fold it in half back to front and so on, from left to right and roll it out once more.

7. Repeat the folding; roll it out again and proceed to use it.

8. Cut for tarts and fill loosely into tart pans, excluding air; partially filled with dried beans. Bake in electric oven at 450 deg. until rims brown (a few minutes, 3 to 5 depending on number of tarts); remove beans and complete baking.

At this time of year we depend upon the plain vanilla-flavoured mixtures. If you have any canned fruit left over, put in a little cream filling, then a spoonful of diced fruit, then more cream filling and top with a dash of fruit.

Chocolate filling is tremendously good used for these pastries—so is butterscotch or a caramel cream mixture.

Easy Puff Paste

1 1/2 cups once-sifted bread flour, 1 tsp. salt, 2/3 cup chilled shortening, 1/2 cup chilled butter. Ice cold water.

WHAT NEXT?

As though emphasizing America's desire for peace, symbols of martial and martial strife are now appearing as gift items for the home. A rolling pin becomes a tranquil flower box and wooden bullets are fashioned to serve in the double capacity of cigarette boxes and book ends. Seen in the Merchandise Mart, Chicago.

Rich chocolate Filling
2 1/4 cups milk, 2 oz. unsweetened chocolate, 1/2 tsp. cornstarch, 1/2 tsp. salt, 3 cup granulated sugar, 1 egg yolk, 1/2 tsp. vanilla.

Measure 2 cups milk into deep saucepan; cut up and add chocolate. Heat until the chocolate melts, using electric element on Low, then beat smooth with a rotary beater and bring to scalding point. Mix cornstarch with 1/2 cup milk and stir into hot mixture; also add sugar and salt. Cook with occasional stirring and mix into slightly beaten egg and egg yolk. Turn into double boiler and cook until the mixture thickens. Remove from element and add vanilla. Cool partially before using for pie or pastries.

Butterscotch Filling
1 cup brown sugar, 3 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups hot milk, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon pure vanilla, 2 tablespoons soft butter.

Combine the sugar very thoroughly with the cornstarch and salt. Stir in the hot milk. Stir and cook the mixture in a double boiler until it has thickened smoothly; then cover and cook, with occasional stirring, until no raw flavor remains. Beat 2 eggs slightly and slowly stir into hot milk mixture. Return to the double boiler and stir and cook until again thickened. Remove from heat and add the vanilla. Add the butter about 1 tablespoon at a time, stirring it in well after each addition—this will prevent any possibility of the butter not working in smoothly. Cool partially before turning into pie or tart shells.

Vanilla Cream Filling
1/2 cup granulated sugar, 3/4 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 1/4 cups hot milk, 2 egg yolks (or 1 egg), 1 teaspoon pure vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon butter.

Mix sugar thoroughly with cornstarch and salt. Stir in hot milk. Stir and cook in double boiler until mixture has thickened smoothly. Cover and cook, with occasional stirring, until no raw flavor remains. Beat the egg yolks (or the egg) slightly and slowly stir in the hot milk mixture. Return to the double boiler and stir and cook until again thickened. Remove from electric element and add vanilla and butter. Cool partially before using in pie.

One of the Canadian Red Cross Society's many vital services is looking after Canadian servicemen and women in overseas hospitals. Ladies... please do your travelling between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. to avoid rush hours when war workers have to be carried. Leave children at home to make room for essential travellers. Avoid Friday, Saturday and week-end travel. Do everything you can to ease war-time travel congestion and avoid inconvenience and discomfort.

When is a Dollar Not a Dollar?

When it won't buy a dollar's worth of goods! For instance, compared to present-day standards, your dollar of the last war was worth, not a dollar... but sometimes less than... Housewives, who went marketing in 1917, had to part with for a four-pound jar of jam which you buy to-day for... Dad's winter underwear cost him back... then, as compared to the... he could buy it for to-day.

You get a lot more for your money NOW... because price ceilings and other anti-inflationary measures have kept the value of your dollar HIGH!

That's why it will pay you to see that selfish spending never undermines price control in Canada. Remember, you protect your dollar's worth when you use your money wisely... when you pay off debts... refuse to buy needless luxuries... give black markets a wide berth... and don't hoard goods.

Make This Pledge Today!

I promise to give my support to keeping the cost of living down. I will buy only what I need. I will observe the ceiling whether buying or selling goods or services. I will pay off old debts, save for the future, invest in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. And I will support taxes which help lower the cost of living.

Keep Your Dollar Value High!

"St. Pat's Dance"

By Jan Kendel

"Shure 'twas a great day for the Irish", so said everyone present at the gala St. Patrick's dance last Friday evening. Streamers of the traditional green, entwined with white and gold provided an appropriate Irish air. Sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Grimsby, the dance proved a wonderful success. Patrons and Patronesses for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McPhail, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. H. Melzer, Mr. and Mrs. John Vooges, and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bush. Miss Peggy O'Neill was convener and the committee was composed of Misses Mary Gordon, Louise Dunn, Betty Hand, Katharine Pyndyk, Messrs. Fred Case and George Winklemaler. Mr. Larry Murphy and Mr. Wm. Hewson were joint masters of ceremonies for the evening.

Miss Peggy O'Neill, charming in a black dinner dress, delighted the audience with her rendition of several Irish melodies including "When Irish Eyes are Smiling", and "My Wild Irish Rose". By special request, Miss O'Neill sang "Peggy O'Neill", "Miss You", and for all the lads in the services, "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There". Music for the evening was provided by the Norton Orchestra who proved "really hep" to the younger set.

Winners of the Novelty and Miscellaneous dance prizes presented during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hanner, Toronto, Miss E. J. Glave and Mr. Dennis, Miss Douglas Dick and Mr. Graham Brownlee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jewson and Mr. Havelock Jewson, Mrs. Don. McGregor (door prize), Mrs. Leslie Stewart (St. Pat's Specialty prize), Mrs. Lawrence Hysert (Patty Dance prize) and Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Rogers.

Father O'Donnell noted that the proceeds from the dance would be used solely for Church purposes, but another entertainment, the nature of which has not been decided as yet, will be held in four or five weeks. The total proceeds from this will be donated to local War Services.

This is but the first of the Annual St. Patrick's Dances. Good luck on your future enterprises St. Joseph Parishioners and as perhaps St. Patrick himself might have said, "The Top O' the Mornin' to You".

The Grimsby and District Red Cross meeting was held on Tuesday, March 21st, in the Red Cross Rooms, one week earlier than usual in order that any one who wished to do so, could attend the meeting in Toronto of the Conveners of Work Groups. Mrs. Wolfenden in the chair. The resignation of Mrs. J. R. Gibbs of the West End, and Mrs. John Chambers of the Central Group, were accepted with regret. Mrs. Chris Walker has taken over work of Mrs. Chambers. Mrs. Richard Shafer was named convener for the wool collection for the blankets.

Miss Nem Bourne has received a very nice letter from a grateful young prisoner-of-war in a German prison camp, thanking her for socks received through the local Red Cross. The letter follows:

Dear Miss Bourne:

This is to thank you for the heaven sent gift of your socks. Quite a long time in being distributed weren't they? However at last you have the satisfaction of knowing that they now adorn a pair of grateful feet. It is very comforting to know that we are not forgotten by you, and the fact alone gives us courage to carry on until that day-when we all years so much arrives. Would you kindly pass this message on to others who are sending comforts out to us, that we all send our grateful thanks and God Bless you all. Yours very sincerely,

Ronald Gumm, P.W.O. No. 7091, Stalag xx A 139, Germany.

P.S.—As mentioned in note, are free of rough spots.

In view of the appreciation shown in the above letter, please do not relax your efforts. There is always lots of work. Call at the Red Cross Rooms in the Post Office, and offer your services. You will be most welcome.

The Friendly Club of Grimsby Beach have been quilting for the past three years. They have recently turned in eleven very nice quilts to the Red Cross Rooms.

Since they started to quilt three years ago, they have quilted eighty-one quilts and made four blankets. They also made booties out of felt hats and most of the members knit or sew for the Red Cross.

They gave one quilt to Russian relief, one to a family who had been burned out, one to the White Elephant and have sold tickets on two quilts and a book rug, made by members of the Club. The rest of the quilts have been turned in to the Red Cross.

They have had several donations of quilt tops, and money, from friends, which was very acceptable. Mrs. DeLaplante held an afternoon tea on Friday, March 17th at her home to display the quilts recently made. The proceeds to buy material for the Club to carry on. The members of the Club appreciate Mrs. DeLaplante's kindness.

Queen Honors
Airplane Crew

The three members of the crew of a Trans-Canada Air Lines plane were recently honored by Queen Wilhelmina at the Netherlands Legation in Ottawa. They were in charge of the plane which carried the Queen from Ottawa to an East Coast port last July on her way back to Britain after a visit to the Dominion.

W. W. FOWLER, pilot, and Miss M. I. Clinch, of St. George, N.B., the stewardess. Queen Wilhelmina presented a gold pin with the Royal cipher superimposed on a crown to each of them.

Captain Fowler, who began flying in 1927 has been with T. C. A. since the inception of Canada's trans-continental air service. He is now assistant operations manager at Winnipeg, Temiskaming, Ont., entered the T.C.A. service in 1941 at Winnipeg. Miss Clinch is a graduate of Saint John N.B., general hospital and joined the air line in September of 1942.

SPORTOLOGY

By Bones Livingston, Sportologist

GOULASH ON THE HALF SHELL

Remember Joe Deacon, when the black haired lad played defence on St. Catharines Industrial league teams. He paired up one winter with Monk Tufford and kept the Medicos of the County Town working overtime patching up opposing players. Also kept Old Tom Warner and his Rink Rats on a 24-hour shift washing blood spots off the dressing room floors and walls. Horse played last winter with Philadelphia Falcons. Made quite a name for himself in the land of Uncle Sam. Joe was also a right smart, fighting baseball player. Now he has been signed up by Philadelphia Blue Jays of the National league and will be farmed out to Utica in the Eastern league. He is a keystone sacker.

It begins to look like the high scoring at the Bowlaway is all over for the season. Away back last November Charlie Schwab, 14 year old prodigy of Bones' Schwab hung up a score of 347 for boys and girls under 16 years, for the Clarence Lewis, Hardie Sprayer trophy. To date that score still stands. Doris MacBride hung up a 339 score in the Peach Queens' league before Christmas, that had up until that time changed, completion several times, and it still stands. That is the St. John and Shaw trophy, who also donate the trophy for the high average, to date Doris has that one captured too, as well as The Independent trophy for the three high games. High open score for the Hewson and Son trophy changed hands several times until Hammy Fox hung up his 400 and there it still stands. Don't look like it will be broken unless Mert Zimmerman gets one of his outlandish streaks on again.

Beamsville Bowling club have finished their schedule for the season and are now engaged in the playoffs. Harry Reid is the high scoring man of the league with 372. Is that the best you could do Pud? E. Juhline had the high triple with 778. In the ladies league, also finished, M. Tufford had the high single score with 270. Winston Churchill's new language, Basic English, has a vocabulary of only 850 words. Now of what use would 850 words be to Ollie Shaw. He is using 8,500 words now and still hasn't got enough. Big Rushton will pay attention to his wife the next time. Sick in bed with tonsillitis for a few days he felt fine. Got up and came down town. The usual result. Back in bed for 10 days. And is Dyke Lawson's face red. A sweet young thing from G.H.S. was in the office the other pee-eeen discussing some printing. In the course of conversation she gushed "I go to school with your son". Dyke shivered and shook and done a Sinatra on the concrete. Who the S. Y. T. meant was Reg. Lawson, our Printer's Devil, who is Dyke's nephew. Did you notice all those GOOD Irishmen, Kunnacher, Clattenburg, Shants, Zimmerman, Rahn, Shafer, Stuart, Vooges, waiting around The Bowlaway wearing Shamrocks on St. Patrick's Day.

Whew-e-e-e! Is my pericardium pounding. What a letter to get in your Monday morning's mail after a tough weekend, but it's all in the racket. You know it just seems to be in the book, that when a sports writer makes a mistake he then makes three mistakes trying to rectify the first one. I should have "stood in bed" on this Tufford question in the first place. Here's the misadventure.

Oh, Oh, Bones; You lose. Ready to gamble eh? Think twice before you gamble in this particular case. Just how old do those born on the good old soil of the Grimsby—(town, Beach or township) have to be, before they cut their first tooth? Strange, but I thought the magic of that district would speed development, but, evidently not. Tufford the Earl—as you called him, is nearly two years younger than brother Monk—he also was born at Grimsby Beach. Now if you are an expert mathematician you may be able to figure out just how old Monk Tufford was, when he cut his first tooth—or can you? The magic that goes with that district wasn't imparted to this young man in cutting his first tooth, if, as you say, "that he hadn't cut his first tooth yet when he was living in Clinton township." Now I'm sure you're slipping, and no doubt the Grimsby Chamber of Commerce will have you up on the "mat" for letting Grimsby down. Ha! Ha! Well Bones, you're a mighty good sport, even if you do go "all out" for Grimsby, and any one was to get up before breakfast to get ahead of you, but your guess was wrong in this case, and I couldn't resist the temptation to again take a crack at you. Haw! Haw! . . . Pass the aspirin, Doc.

P/O H. Bergman, V52113,
H.M.C.S. Husky,
C/O F.M.O.,
Cornwallis, N.S.

Mrs. H. F. Baker,
Dear Mrs. Baker:

I was the fortunate sailor to receive the ditty bag sent by you. I wish to thank you most sincerely. It was certainly appreciated.

It certainly must be a lot of work to get them out and I can't thank you enough.

I am an engineer on this ship and we are quite comfortable and happy but let me assure you once again that those ditty bags make life just a little brighter.

Thanking you again, I remain,
Sincerely,
H. Bergman.

H.M.C.S. Saguenay,
Dec. 29th, 1943.

Dear Lorene Crich,
Grimsby Beach.

No doubt you'll be surprised to hear from me but I must write and thank you for the lovely ditty bag I received. I'm not much good at expressing my thanks in words so I'll say "Thanks a Million". But of all the ditty bags that came here yours was one of the best. The things you sent me, without a word of a lie, was something I needed or was just out of. You didn't happen to knit those stockings yourself, did you? They really came in handy.

I don't know whether you have made a habit of writing to servicemen or not but if you have time to write and care to, I'll certainly find time to answer it.

I am a stoker second class on the Saguenay just out from Cornwallis on the basin. I just came down now from getting paid. I spent the Christmas weekend in St. John and the weekend before that too. Had a swell time. Incidentally my home is in London, Ontario.

Here's hoping I'll be hearing from you and thanks again for the ditty bag.

Your new friend,
Fred Becham.

Legion Jottings

A proposal that West Lincoln branch, Canadian Legion, suspend operations for the duration of the war found few supporters when it came up for discussion at last Wednesday night's meeting. Instead, opinion was strongly expressed that the Legion must carry on and have a good working organization for the boys of the present army when they come back.

Rev. George Taylor-Munro advocated the branch adopting a constructive program along Legion lines and meeting regularly once a month.

William Lothian, treasurer, who proposed suspending operations, said there was a lack of co-operation in the executive and small attendance at meetings showed a lack of interest by members.

Every effort will be made to have the next meeting—April 5—a real event and members of Winona branch will be invited. Winona branch will also be invited to install this year's officers.

By unanimous vote, women members of the armed services will be invited to take part in the meetings.

Rats are plentiful and the fur is of extremely good quality.

Allegedly struck from behind while westbound on the Queen Elizabeth Way Sunday night, a car in charge of Richard Brock, Richmond Hill, was overturned. This was included in the verdict of a coroner's jury at an inquest held last Wednesday afternoon to hear evidence regarding the death of Albert S. William Fawell, inspector of the Lincoln County Humane Society since it was organized 17 years ago, announced last week that he had sent his resignation to the Society's executive.

He explained that the work which was started originally to serve St. Catharines and the area immediately surrounding the district has now expanded so that calls are frequently received from the farthest corners of the county. This increased work, he felt, required "the energy of a younger man."
